MAKING MEMORIES

The first event at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater in 2018 featured two young people declaring their love for one another. Family members cried and embraced, filled with pride and nostalgia. Like nearly 100 other couples over the last 17 years, they chose the BCT to host their wedding because the theater figured prominently in their childhoods and courtship. It epitomized what they thought of as “Bloomington.”

In July 2018, 20 third and fourth graders re-enacted moments in local history, gathered family members’ memories of Bloomington, and created short films that premiered on our big screen. The Telling Our Story/Creating Our Town project resulted in 10-year-olds who could speak thoughtfully about the labor disputes at Bloomington’s RCA plant or quote their grandfather’s tale of the Martinsville flood. Through the lens of movie making, the Buskirk-Chumley Theater became a fulcrum for memories of all kinds.

From the rapt audience hearing a live 16-piece orchestra perform an original score for a classic Buster Keaton film to a young woman sharing how she is “creating happiness” as part of the Walk the Talk speaker series, both the performers and the audiences at Buskirk-Chumley Theater events make memories that help define our experience of home.

Our lobby doors opened for 57,000 visits in 2018, resulting in gasps of surprise, joyful explosions of applause, and tissues pulled from pockets and purses. Three thousand artists found their voices on our stage, along with an audience to watch, and listen, and share.

This document tallies up these numbers, among many others. It tells the story of a healthy non-profit organization with a dedicated board and staff. What it can’t capture is the diversity of the memories generated over the course of the year. However, we witnessed their creation, and BCT Management, Inc. was honored to play a part in making them.

Sincerely,

Danielle McClelland
Executive Director
Buskirk-Chumley Theater/BCT Management, Inc.

The mission of BCT Management, Inc. is to develop the Buskirk-Chumley Theater as a high-quality and widely accessible community resource and performance venue, operated in a fiscally responsible manner.

ARTS START UP EDUCATION SERIES

BCT Management, Inc. teamed up with the Monroe County Public Library's Nonprofit Central in 2018 to offer a series of workshops on event planning, marketing, and technical production to assist new presenters in taking their ideas for performances, fundraising events, and festivals from concept to execution. An average class size of 12-15 people, from young students to retirees, allowed for individualized attention and enthusiastic participation.

The classes culminated in the Arts Start Up Seminar on March 31, bringing together 17 intrepid arts entrepreneurs and local experts including Chad Rabinovitz of Bloomington Playwrights Project and the Adirondack Theatre Festival; Luci Englert McKean, founding member of TEDxBloomington; and Ellen Campbell, founding member of the Uketones and the Bloomington Creative Glass Center, to draft business plans for potential new events at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater or Ivy Tech John Waldron Arts Center.

Jim Ansaldo successfully completed all the Arts Start Up workshops and participated in the seminar, going on to develop a winning proposal for the B-Town Improv Hoedown, a new event to launch in October 2019. The B-Town Improv Hoedown will be held at the Ivy Tech John Waldron Arts Center and will receive three years of support via the Arts Start Up Fund.

TELLING OUR STORY / CREATING OUR TOWN

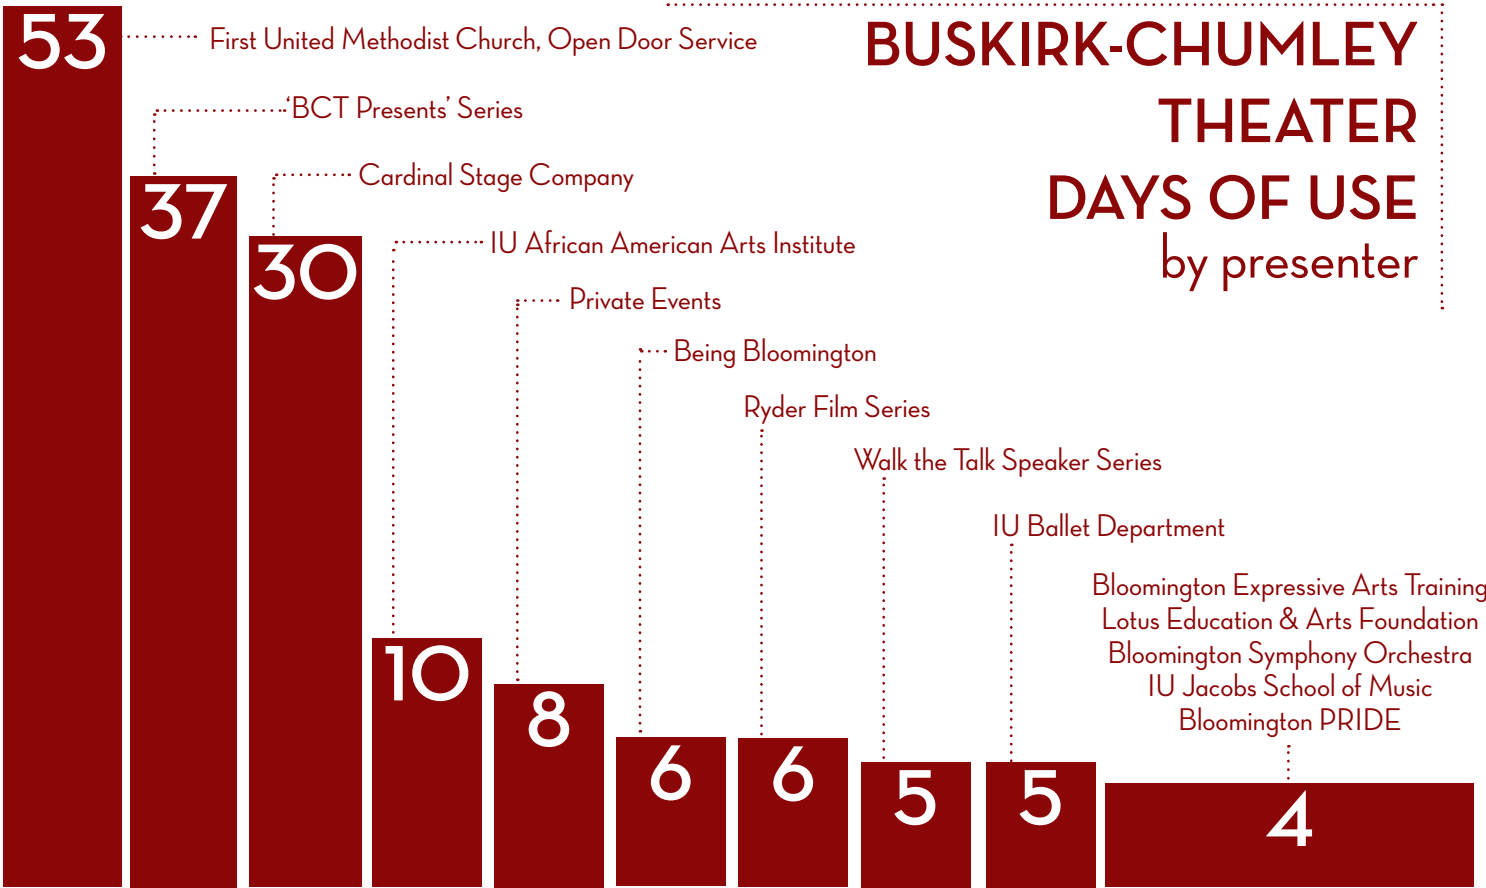

In collaboration with Wonderlab, Monroe County History Center, and the Monroe County Public Library's Level Up Digital Creativity Center, BCT Management, Inc. continued to develop this exploration of local history through the lens of filmmaking.

Twenty students from the Bloomington Parks & Recreation Kid City summer camp learned about the history of the Buskirk-Chumley Theater, gathered stories from elders in their families, and acted out scenes from Bloomington's history, creating short films that highlighted their personal connection to our shared community.

Students enjoyed writing, performing, and directing for the film, and were thrilled at the chance to bring their family members to see themselves and their Bloomington stories on the big screen.

VOLUNTEERS

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

The 2019 Jim Mahan BCT Volunteer of the Year Award for outstanding volunteer work was awarded to the team of Patty Denison & Gary Arbeiter.

Patty & Gary began volunteering in 2017 and have since become two of our most dedicated volunteer ushers. We're always delighted to see that they have signed up for an event - together or independently - because they are both highly confident, helpful, and fun. The two of them contributed over 280 volunteer hours in 2018 alone!

"Welcome to the Buskirk-Chumley Theater!" "Can I help you find your seat?" Our volunteer usher corps is essential to every event held at the theater. They assist patrons, answer questions, support our staff in emergencies, and occasionally help to evacuate the building. They also work to make sure everyone feels welcome, an essential aspect of our community-focused organization. In 2018, our ushers gave 3,948 hours of their time.

We also benefit from the generosity of our other volunteers, including photographers, office assistants, and our street team. The street team helps to spread the word about upcoming events by distributing posters to supportive stores and restaurants. We appreciate this team's efforts to raise awareness of the theater in all corners of Monroe County.

OTHER SUPPORT

The BCT's Dancing Dog Bone mascot premiered in 2018. This costume, made from re-purposed material by Bloomington artist Martina Celerin, depicts the iconic Indiana dog bone-shaped sign and adds pizzazz to our special events. Thanks, Martina!

Long-term institutional support comes from these community partners:

We appreciate the work done by Howard Lodge and the Bloomington Photography Club to document events at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater.

The Buskirk-Chumley Theater is owned by the City of Bloomington and operated by BCT Management, Inc., a private nonprofit.

Sometimes support comes in unusual forms. We want to thank FARMbloomington for composting our concessions waste!

The BCT receives an Arts Operating Support Level II Regional Initiative Grant from the Indiana Arts Commission to support the 'BCT Presents' series and ensure our stage is available to local artists.

COMMUNITY QUOTES

"It's downtown, so easy to combine a show with dinner and/or drinks/dessert afterwards. Good symbol of Bloomington for out-of-towners."

-- patron at Arlo Guthrie concert

"From the moment I purchase our tickets to the end of a performance it's a wonderful experience. Staff are friendly, performances are wonderful, and the theater is cozy...with much history. I enjoy going to see the classic films due to the ambiance."

-- attendee of 'A Jungle Adventure'

"I like the way the theatre was given a chance by the town."

-- fan of Rhonda Vincent

"We love encouraging artists & bringing live entertainment into our community."

-- Matt & Samy Stuebe

"We support the Buskirk-Chumley Theater because it brings incredible talent to our city - in the way of music, theatre, film, and adventure (Banff, Reel Rock). It is a community treasure!"

-- Tim Clougher & Gabrielle Sloan

"I like the symbiosis with other outstanding local venues such as the IU Cinema, and the support for local producers and performers, as well as the class acts you bring in. Great theater and atmosphere. My favorite Bloomington place."

-- Ani DiFranco fan

"Quintessential Bloomington...a great asset for the city and downtown. A place to concentrate on the performance with comfortable seating. Oh, and beer too."

-- patron at Tig Notaro's performance

"We have driven up from Louisville a couple of times and are always impressed with the quality of the sound, the helpful staff and lovely theatre."

-- fan of The Lone Bellow

"I donate to support music, arts, community, and my own history in Bloomington. Had my first date at the Indiana in 1969!"

-- Jim Lemon

"As a local it is an important part of my cultural and social life."

-- Gin Blossoms fan

"I always loved seeing the dioramas next to the screen when I would come see films as a child."

-- Ellen Campbell

"Diverse programming, friendly style of presentation giving one a feeling of our community coming together... Also, [the space is] used for memorials, meditation, Sunday worship - just about anything goes!"

-- Texas Troubadours concert attendee

"It's a local treasure. Just about every seat in the house is a good seat. The BCT treats donors like royalty. It's lovely."

-- Ani DiFranco fan

"I absolutely love and appreciate that you sell tickets directly from your box office. I also appreciate the artists you bring and the warmth of the staff. The concessions are wonderful."

-- Patty Griffin concert attendee

"I love the intimate setting and 'old school' feel."

-- Five for Fighting fan

COMMUNITY SUPPORT

TICKET DONATIONS

In 2018, the Buskirk-Chumley Theater donated tickets to more than 45 nonprofit and community organizations for their auctions and raffles. In total, these donations were valued at more than $1,500, and we are pleased to expand our impact across the community by supporting important initiatives in this way.

“...proceeds from the silent auction go toward collecting, preserving and sharing the artifacts and stories of Monroe County.”

-- Monroe County History Center

“Your generous gift helps us create life-changing mentor matches...”

-- Big Brothers Big Sisters of South Central Indiana

“...proceeds will be used to support projects and programs that help all students read, write, think, and succeed.”

-- Foundation of Monroe County Community Schools

FUNDRAISERS

Events hosted by the Buskirk-Chumley Theater each year include fundraisers in support of local charities. We are proud to play such an active role in events that benefit these organizations and our community.
