PROGRAMS

TELLING OUR STORY / CREATING OUR TOWN

In 2019, BCT Management, Inc. continued to develop this initiative to explore local history through filmmaking. Girls Inc. of Monroe County partnered with the BCT and the filmmaking team of Eric Ayotte, Charlie Jones, and Hadley Gephart to help girls to learn about the arts and culture history of Bloomington, including the history of the Buskirk-Chumley Theater, and basic filmmaking techniques. A resulting short film was shown on the big screen for the girls' families and the public. This year's project was made possible by grants from Indiana Humanities and the Zeta Chapter of Psi Iota Xi.

BCT MOVIE PARTNER PROJECT

This program honors our history as a movie theater and makes film programming more accessible by waiving the majority of the fees for community-minded film screenings. Our 2019 partners were:

Technical Theatre Training

Education, in many forms, is part of the Buskirk-Chumley Theater's mission. One of the many ways we seek to broaden the community's understanding about how to successfully plan and implement events is to open our free Technical Theatre Training sessions for I.A.T.S.E 618 stage hands to the general public. These sessions are available to any skill and experience level and include guest speakers who cover topics ranging from rigging & counterweight systems to audio signal flow.

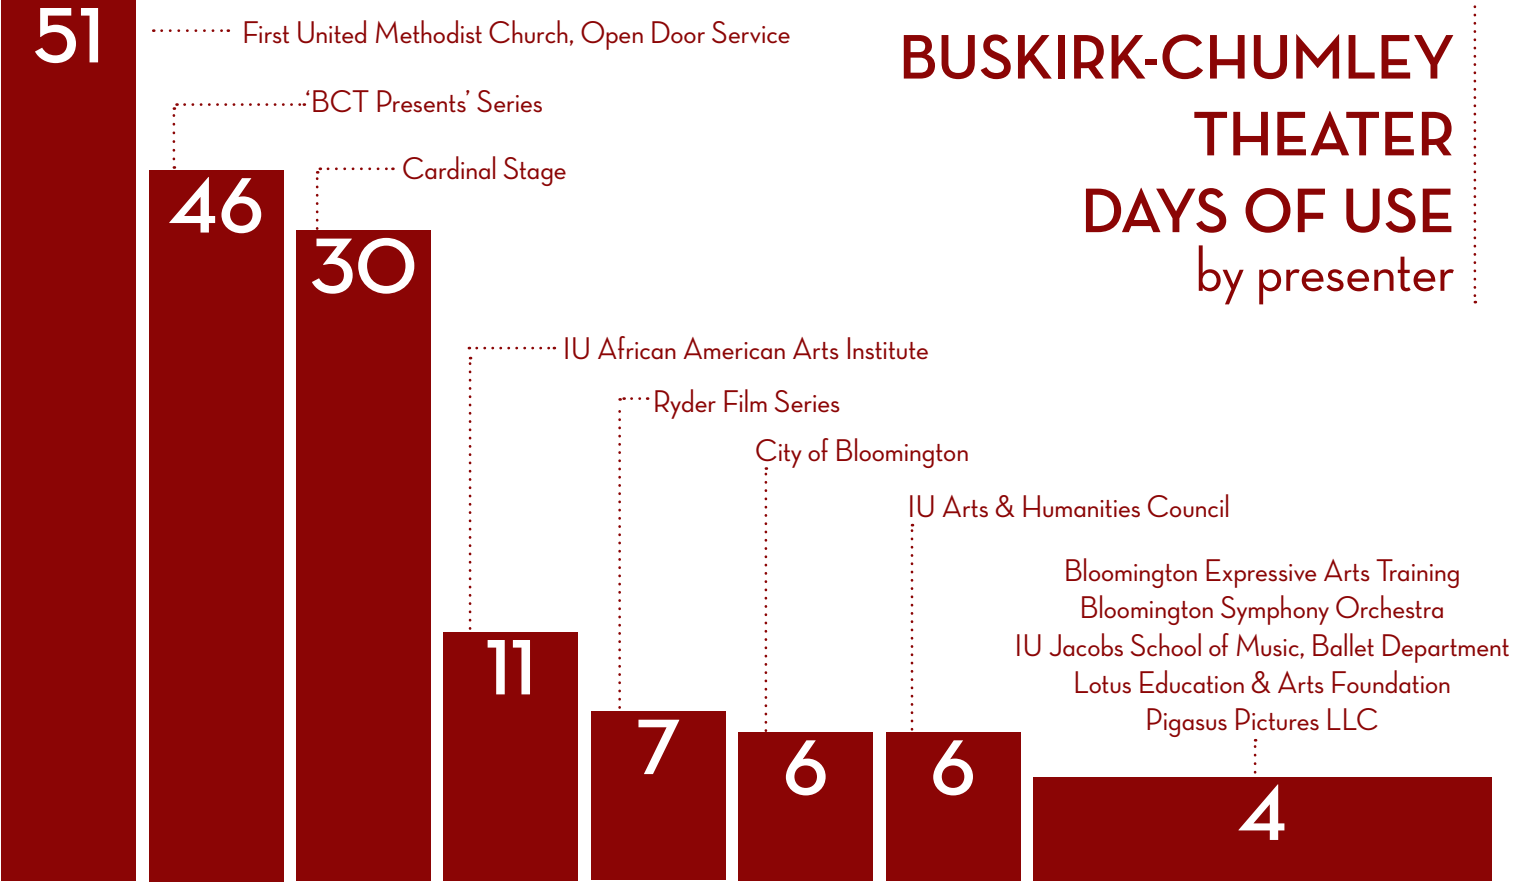

Our technicians hosted four sessions in 2019, with an average of nine attendees per session. Attendees include stage hands in training, promoters preparing for events at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater, promoters preparing for events at other venues, and community members who have a general interest in the field. Guest speakers included Wayne Jackson, owner/operator of Jackson Audio, and John DeLong, Stage Manager of the IU Auditorium.

Arts Start Up Workshops and Seminar

The Arts Start Up Seminar connects the expertise of the BCT staff and partners to community members who want to create the next big thing in Bloomington. Applying the philosophy and business approach of entrepreneurship and the startup industry, the seminar involves a day-long workshop and the creation of a business plan. Completing both elements can result in a rent subsidy at the BCT or the Ivy Tech John Waldron Arts Center. Short, single-topic workshops can help lay the groundwork for the seminar or assist aspiring promoters in particular areas.

In 2019, workshops and seminars were held at the Monroe County Public Library and The Mill.

VOLUNTEERS

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

The 2020 Jim Mahan BCT Volunteer of the Year Award for outstanding volunteer work was awarded to Madeleine Varda.

When Madeleine joined the BCT usher team in June 2019, she really hit the ground running! Despite joining us halfway through the year, she accumulated more volunteer hours (224 to be exact) in 2019 than any other usher. Madeleine also worked as our Artist Hospitality & Postering Intern during the fall semester. She is a greatly appreciated member of our team, and we are grateful to accept the donation of her time and talent.

“Welcome to the Buskirk-Chumley Theater!” “Can I help you find your seat?” Our volunteer usher corps is essential to every event held at the theater. They assist patrons, answer questions, support our staff in emergencies, and occasionally help to evacuate the building. They also work to make sure everyone feels welcome, an essential aspect of our community-focused organization. In 2019, our ushers gave 4,224 hours of their time.

We also benefit from the generosity of our other volunteers, including photographers, office assistants, and our street team. The street team helps to spread the word about upcoming events by distributing posters to supportive stores and restaurants. We appreciate this team’s efforts to raise awareness of the theater in all corners of Monroe County.

2019 VOLUNTEERS BY THE NUMBERS

OTHER SUPPORT

The Buskirk-Chumley Theater is owned by the City of Bloomington and operated by BCT Management, Inc., a private nonprofit. We truly appreciate the support we received from the city in 2019!

Thank you to community members who show their support for the BCT during everyday tasks. We receive support from the Amazon Smile and Kroger Community Rewards programs when shoppers designate BCT Management, Inc. as their benefitting nonprofit.

Jackson Audio donated a digital audio console to the theater in 2019. This Midas PRO2 console further deepened the technological resources we are able to offer our varied local performers and nationally touring artists. Both groups give the BCT high marks for everything from friendliness to technological expertise.

Long-term institutional support comes from these community partners:

Bloomington

We appreciate the support we receive from Jeff Norris Photography. Jeff and Siobhan's work help to make our materials sparkle and they are just so much fun to work with!

BCT Management, Inc. launched a search for a new executive director in 2019. Special thanks go to our Executive Search Committee members: Sandi Clark, Angie Figg, Becky Higgins, Sara Laughlin, Gabe Gloden, Shaun McDermott, Ilene Schaeffer, Rebecca Stanze, Jo Throckmorton, and Bob Zaltsberg.

The BCT receives an Arts Operating Support Level II Regional Initiative Grant from the Indiana Arts Commission to support the 'BCT Presents' series and ensure our stage is available to local artists.

COMMUNITY

TICKET DONATIONS

In 2019, the Buskirk-Chumley Theater donated tickets to 40 community organizations for their fundraising auctions and raffles. In total, these donations were valued at almost $2,000, and we are pleased to expand our impact across the community by supporting important initiatives in this way. Benefiting organizations ranged from LifeDesigns to American Cancer Society, from Mother Hubbard's Cupboard to Sycamore Land Trust.

IMPORTANT CONVERSATIONS

We pride ourselves on being a place for the community to gather for important discussions as well as the performing arts. Just a few of the events that inspired conversation and action among our patrons in 2019 were:

An Evening with Sam Quinones
presented by Centerstone

Love is Listening

presented by IU Health's Alzheimer's Resource Service 5B: Humanity and Healthcare. A World AIDS Day Reflection, presented by IU School of Nursing

The Power of Words: Margaret McMullen presented by MCPL's Friends of the Library

Biggest Little Farm

Presented by the City of Bloomington

FUNDRAISERS

Events hosted by the Buskirk-Chumley Theater each year include fundraisers in support of local charities. We are proud to play such an active role in events that benefit these organizations and our community.
